

Chief Petty Officer Indoctrination Course

Instructor Critique

Note: Forward completed survey to Chief of Naval Education and Training, LEAD 222, 250 Dallas St. Pensacola, FL 32508-5300

1. The instructional material was logically sequenced.
2. The Instructor Guide provided adequate information to teach the course.
3. The Student Guide and reference materials were helpful in presenting and supporting the course.
4. Methods (role plays, case studies, etc.) were useful in achieving lesson objectives.
5. This course was effective in conveying the CPO's new leadership role.
6. What was/were the most beneficial topic(s); why?

Strongly Dislike	Dislike	Neutral	Like	Strongly Like
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

7. What was/were the least beneficial topic(s); why?

8. What changes (add or delete topic(s), methods of instruction, etc.) are necessary to make this a better course; and why?

9. Additional information/Comments pertinent to question (1-5).